

Assembly Bill 221

Date published:
November 30, 1967

CHAPTER 189, LAWS OF 1967

AN ACT to create 66.024 (5m) of the statutes, relating to temporary zoning for court-order annexations.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

66.024 (5m) of the statutes is created to read:

66.024 (5m) TEMPORARY ZONING OF AREA PROPOSED TO BE ANNEXED. An interim zoning ordinance to become effective only upon approval of the annexation at the referendum election may be enacted by the governing body of the city or village. Such ordinance may temporarily designate the classification of the annexed area for zoning purposes until the zoning ordinance is amended as prescribed in s. 62.23 (7) (d). The proposed interim zoning ordinance shall be referred to and recommended by the plan commission prior to introduction. Authority to make such temporary classification shall not be effective when the county zoning ordinance prevails during litigation as provided in s. 59.97 (4a).

Approved November 6, 1967.
